Case study shows that in Hindu mythology the culture of “Burning effigy” is practiced since ancient time with the concept of destroying the Demon. In political movement Burning effigy is considered as “sense of protest” against the political leader for anti-social activities.

In India, the people of Tamil Nadu (AIADMK Party) recently conducted a massive programme of Effigy burning of E.V.K.S. This effigy burning programme shall be considered as very intensive ever happened in the history of world and even shall be placed in “GUINNESS RECORD” in support of protecting women image.

It is further focused that in Hindus custom the Human body after death being burnt and the Ashes being dissolved in ocean especially in RAMESWARAM. The Ashes of global level Tamil’s even residing at US, UK, UAE, PAKISTAN, SRI LANKA, CHINA etc. ultimately coming to RAMESWARAM. Why dead body (mortal soul) is burnt?... Why Ashes is coming to Rameswaram?...

It is hypothesized that the philosophy of burning dead body shall be considered as Ancient Tamil Culture that the “MORTAL SOUL” shall be considered as become “EFFIGY” (Immortal Soul). It is hypothesized that “RAMESWARAM” shall be considered as the place of transfiguration of Earthly matters (Mortal soul) into Heavenly matters (Immortal soul). The philosophy of created soul, transformed soul shall be described as below.

(i)

Rameswaram shall be considered as place of "Space Launching Center of Soul". The soul of Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam shall be considered as "Roaming" around Rameswaram as his body was not burnt.
